Kohnke's Own
THE FUTURE OF HORSE NUTRITION

GASTRO-COAT
MANAGEMENT TO REDUCE WOOD CHEWING IN WEANLINGS

Stress in weanlings often results in a behavioral response due to low grade gastric ulcers. Chewing wood produces saliva to naturally buffer the stomach and relieve gastric acid 'burn' and erosion of the gastric lining.
Feeding Lucerne as a preferred roughage provides protein, calcium and heat ~ great for winter and helps protect the gastric lining.
Adding a supplement of Kohnke's Own Gastro-Coat to each of the morning and evening meals will ensure salivation and natural coating on the gastric lining.
